VERDICT OF A SCIENTIST.

A noted sociologist investigator has published an inquiry into the drinking habits of Europe, and sums up as follows:

"We find that the two banner countries for freedom of commerce and industry—Switzerland and Holland—are also the most advanced in restricting the freedom of the alcoholic drink traffic, and that despotic Russia comes next.

"That wine and beer are not temperance drinks and that the two countries inhabited by the chief wine and beer drinkers, and in which the wines and beer are of the lightest character—viz, France and Belgium—are the most drunk-en."—Constitution.

FIVE SALOONS FOR EACH CHURCH.

Five saloons for each church in this country. What are the fruits of these saloons? Drunkards, libertines, murderers, thieves, liars, corrupt legislators, cruel husbands, negligent mothers, vile fathers, unruly sons, impure daughters, infidels, and all that is wicked and sinful.

Think of it! Five liquor saloons to each church, and these saloons sustained by the votes of the Christian people. Is it strange that the power of the church is not what it should be, when there is such a golden wedge among her voting members? One place devoted to the building up of Christianity, and five times as many for its destruction. "What will the harvest be?" Will we as Christians pursue this course any longer? God help the followers of Christ to come from among the world, and, with spotless garments, do their whole duty. Then will we see Zion prosper and souls returning to God.—Educator.

A LITTLE CASKET.

Anna Lou, the little three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Blake, of Dunnellon, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at their home in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Blake and his son came up on the morning train with the corpse, which was kept in the waiting room of the Florida Southern depot, until the 12 o'clock train, when they took it to Rochelle to be buried. The poor mother was almost heart-broken over this early taking away of her child, this being the only child she had.
